MATCH POINT 4

STARS Jonathan Rhys-Meyers, Scarlett Johansson, Emily Mortimer, Matthew Goode AND Brian Cox

Audiences familiar with Woody Allen's recent spate of insular, near-pointless New York "comedies" may not even recognize Match Point—a sharp, meaty London thriller—as a Woody Allen film, when, really, it couldn't have been made by anyone else. Chris (Rhys-Meyers), an erudite tennis pro from a poor Irish upbringing, befriends Tom (Goode), an insanely rich British chap. Tom's sister Chloe (Mortimer) takes an instant liking to Chris. Soon enough, Chris is married to Chloe, living in an insanely posh flat, working for the family firm—and sleeping with Tom's beguiling American fiancée, Nola (Johansson, in top form). The adulterous romantic entanglements are pure Woody, but so is his fixation on the luck that drives Chris's life. What's less familiar is how much dark bite Allen brings to his story; maybe he just had to get out of New York.

GRANDMA'S BOY
(20TH CENTURY FOX)

WHAT'S WHAT? A thirty-something loser-gamer, we m gamer!—loses his place and is forced to move in with his grandma and her two Golden Girls-esque roommates.

SO WHAT? Adam Sandler sidekick and journeyman actor Covert co-wrote the film and stars as our hero. You know what that means: High-brow wit and New Yorker jokes abound!

UNDERWORLD: EVOLUTION
(SCREEN GEMS PICTURES)

STARS ▶ Kate Beckinsale, Scott Speedman

WHAT'S WHAT? Kickass iconoclast vampire Selene (Beckinsale) continues her penetrating inquiry into the r causes of the ongoing feud with werewolv... Oh, hell, do even care?

SO WHAT? Seriously, does anyone actually want an Underworld sequel? Beyond the obvious desire by many see Beckinsale in tight black vinyl again, we mean?

ANNAPOLIS
(TOUCHSTONE PICTURES)

STARS ▶ James Franco, Tyrese Gibson, Jordan Brewster, Donnie Wahlberg

WHAT'S WHAT? A roughneck student at the Annapolis Naval Academy (Franco, Spider-Man) faces the trials and tribulations of officer training under the boot of his hard-assed superior (Gibson).

SO WHAT? In 1982, there was a little film called An Officer and A Gentleman. It won some Oscars and made Richard Gere a superstar (for a while, anyway), and it kinda has the exact same plot as this movie. Just sayin'.

DVD WRAP-UP

BY LESLIE SIMON & SCOTT HEISEL

WEDDING CRASHERS

Sure, Owen Wilson, Vince Vaughn and Rachel McAdams are the touted stars of this debauched dude flick, but the true breakout star is Isla Fisher. Hey, any girl who can land the hand of Ali G is all right in our book.

EXTRAS ▶ Audio commentary, deleted scenes, "Event Planning" and "A Crash Course In Wedding Crashing" featurettes.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN—A PUNK ROCK ANTHOLOGY

Odds are, you were probably (at most) an embryo when the Dead Boys, the Stooges and Generation X made the grungy club rounds in the late '70s. Don't kick yourself—or your parents—for missing the action: Pop in this DVD, and you're halfway there!

EXTRAS ▶ Live and studio performances from Germs, Dead Kennedys, Generation X, X-Ray Spex and more.

THE CHUMSCRUBBER

Before Jamie Bell starred in Green Day's "Wake Me Up When September Ends" video, he was receiving rave reviews for his portrayal of a disaffected teen in The Chumscrubber. With King Kong causing a ruckus, we can say we knew him when.

EXTRAS ▶ Deleted/extended scenes, "Making Of The Chumscrubber" featurette.

FINAL DESTINATION SCARED 2 DEATH 2PK

Frankly, we were unaware that there even was a follow-up to Final Destination, let alone an upcoming third chapter. Guess you learn something new every day.

EXTRAS ▶ Bonus disc with 20-minute preview of Final Destination 3.

RED EYE

As if turbulence, terrorist attacks and crying babies weren't reason enough to stay away from airplanes, now Cillian Murphy has to flash his beady little eyes and scare the bejesus out of us. Greyhound, anyone?

EXTRAS ▶ Audio commentary, outtakes, "Making Of A Thriller At 30,000 Feet" featurette.

ANDREW W.K.: WHO KNOWS?

Who Knows? will only further confuse Andrew W.K.'s legion of die(party)hards who live on the andrewwk.com message board debating his existence, but for the rest of us, it's the perfect holdover until he drops LP3 later this year. Long live the party!

EXTRAS ▶ Behind-the-scenes tour footage, AWK fan tribute, "I Get Wet" live outtakes and more.
