'GOD SAVE THE QUEEN' DVD

This is a fantastic punk rock anthology featuring legends from the US and the UK. The DEAD BOYS start the whole thing off with 'Sonic Reducer'- one of my favourite punk songs of all time and we get to see Stiv Bators in his full, snotty glory looking cool as all hell followed by JOHNNY THUDERS with a live montage of 'Born To Lose' and an interview with Johnny too where he talks about Paris, drugs, New York, Heartbreakers etc. UK SUBS are up next with 'CID'- one of the most important UK bands that are still going now!!

The GERMS serve up 'Media Blitz' next and yeah, it's chaotic and unpredictable!! The godfather of punk rock IGGY POP delivers 'I Wanna Be Your Dog' with his STOOGES. The rest of the DVD is dedicated to UK bands featuring THE ADICTS, THE BUZZCOKS, THE EXPLOITED, THE SUBHUMANS, VICE SQUAD (with interview too), GENERATION X (with interview too), TOY DOLLS, CHELSEA, X-RAY SPEX (with interview too), 999, BLITZ, GBH, GOLDBLADE and SHAM 69 with a MARKY RAMONE interview in the middle of it all. A very comprehensive anthology covering all sides of the punk rock spectrum with many interesting choices. It would have been very easy to just have the SEX PISTOLS, THE CLASH, THE RAMONES etc but this collection delves deeper than that and exhibits the different and even more obscure facets of this 30-year old beast. It's great to see the fun-side of the scene with the TOY DOLLS and the political side with THE EXPLOITED and GBH...I still think that the DEAD BOYS steal the show and is an amazing opener but that's because I love everything about Stiv and the DEAD BOYS . Kids could really learn a lot from a DVD like this... Music Video Distributors www.mvdb2b.com ===
