Metal's Darkside

The Hard And The Furious
Volume I

[DVD]

By: Black Angel

Just when you thought Jasmin St. Claire was gone from the spot light, she comes back and with vengeance. The time, Miss St. Claire is back where she rightfully belongs - as a hostess in her new DVD Zine, The Metal's Darkside. St. Claire's previous works include several appearances in Adult Movies and Wrestling. From what I'm gathering, The Metal's Darkside DVD Zine is hell-bent on bringing the world candid interviews and uncensored videos that MTV and Fuse TV refuse to play or ain't got the guts to play.

The first volume of many Zines to come, is entitled "The Hard And The Furious". On this DVD, you'll find a fantastic interview with Cannibal Corpse vocalist, George "Corpsegrinder" Fisher, wherein he talks about the Death Metal scene and gives his thoughts on Black Metal, which are absolutely hilarious. There is also some bonus footage from his interview as well that'll give you even more laughs. You'll also get to see the video for Cannibal Corpse's "Decency Defied", which could have been better, but who's keeping up. There is also an interview with Death Angel as well as a video of their tune "Thicker Than Blood". You'll also find a candid interview of Nevermore and Satyr of Satyricon. I really enjoyed Satyr's interview, there simply aren't enough interviews of the guy floating around. Although he seemed a little timid and somewhat reluctant to speak his mind, it's very interesting. Also included is an edited version of the video "Fuel For Hatred", which confuses me. I thought this DVD was all about uncut and uncensored. Oh well, it's still a great clip of one of the band's best tunes. Last but not least, we have a tribute to the late Dimebag Darrel of Pantera/Damageplan and an interview with Pat Lachman and Vinnie Paul before Dime's untimely demise. One more thing, just for the horndog in all of you sweaty Metalheads, there is a bonus interview of St. Claire having a bubble bath. She talks of her love for Cannibal Corpse, Metal and of her hatred for George Bush Jr. and poseurs.

One thing is for sure, Jasmin St. Claire is never at a loss for words, she speaks as often and as loud as she can in this DVD. Sometimes it's abit out of place and little on the wild side, however this is about Metal and as you all know, Metal has and always will be out of place and definitely wild! From the clips of the upcoming Volume II of The Metal's Darkside, there looks to be plenty more where this came from. I'm very much looking forward to it!
