"60's Rock 'N' Roll JukeBox"
(MVD)

Here's a rock 'n' roll blast from the past for you. Two song performances by some big names of yesterday. I did a review a month or two ago on another release from this series, which can probably still be found on this site if you care enough to look around for it. Anyway, this one has some really good material on it. The best of the bunch, in my opinion, is the legendary Wolfman Jack doing "Old Time Rock 'N' Roll" and "Shake, Rattle & Roll." That's worth the price of admission alone. You also get to see Bryan Hyland doing his two biggest hits, "Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polka Dot Bikini" and "Sealed With A Kiss." Spencer Davis does "Gimme Some Lovin'," Del Shannon does "Runaway" and Roger McGuinn does "Mr. Tamborine Man" and "Turn Turn Turn." Another performance that I was rather fond of was John Sebastian's "Welcome Back Kotter," which, as most of you should know, is the theme song for the tv show of the same name. I don't think I've ever seen this performed live before. So, that was a nice treat. Johnny Tillotson and Ray Peterson also make an appearance with two songs.

"60's Rock 'N' Roll JukeBox" is well worth picking up.
