It is quite a treat to get to watch and listen to a great Neo Prog band like Landmarq in a live setting, even more when it is excellently filmed and recorded like on Turbulence: Live In Poland .

Perhaps they are not as well known as bands like IQ and Pallas but Landmarq's material has nothing to envy them. Great Neo Prog indeed. On thing that differentiates Landmarq from other Neo bands is the presence of Tracy Hitchings on vocals. She has a strong influence on the music and her stage presence is quite in evidence. On this concert her voice is very pure and I will add that all the musicians perform in a top level manner.

The DVD is loaded with interesting bonus material, not the least being some old "bootleg" concert performances. Turbulence: Live In Poland is a "must have" for any Neo Prog fan and Landmarq inconditionnals wont be able to live without it. Highly recommended indeed.
