

Welcome Anonymous!

Sep 07, 2006

Main Menu

- Home

Content:

- Metal News
- Album/CD Reviews
- All Reviews
- Hammerradio & video
- Website Links
- Search
- Recommend Us
- Stats
- Interviews
- DVD Reviews

hamhedzine@aol.com

Who's Online

We have 5 guests and 0 member online

You are an anonymous user.
You can register for free by clicking here

Last User

Greetings to our newest member:
CoreThumb

Acid Drinkers – the Hand the Rocks the Coffin – MVD

Hammerhead rates it: ★★☆☆ Community rates it: (no ratings yet)

Here is the second DVD review I have had the chance to do on this thrash band from Poland. They are huge over there where they also won a Fryderyk Award for Best Hard And Heavy act. This set is from the Metalmania 2006 show in March. This DVD was turned around rather quickly. "Anybody Home" starts off this DVD with the need for some speed. They have a sort of Motorhead meets Vader and Venom vibe about them. "Backyard Bandit" starts a bit different then ends up coring it up a bit. "Life Hurts More than Death" takes it into a new grooving area. "Slow & stoned" takes yet another turn coming out a bit more down and the riff sounds kill. "Drug Dealer" is also another song with core bounce. "Poplin Twist" gives the kids in the pit what they want and that is a pit friendly track. "The Joker" is also a track that keeps the tempo high. Twelve tracks in all. The extras are songs from other shows and a video clip for "Hate Unlimited". As per the usual they include extras for your desktop and more. About two hours of fun. This band is definitely for everyone.

Added: Monday, September 04, 2006

Related Link: Acid Drinkers
hits: 4

[Back to reviews index]

Want to comment on this review?

Register here for a free user account, and you'll be able to.

All Material Copyright HAMMERHEAD ZINE 2006 FREE PROMOTION
Contact: hamhedzine@aol.com KEEP THE HITS COMING