

THE DWARVES – 'FEFU THE DVD' DVD

This is a DWARVES fucking feast! A bag full of surprises! It predominantly showcases the wonderful 'Fuck, Eat and Fuck You Up' video that unites the Dwarves with the Suicide Girls...what the fuck more could you ask for??!!! You know exactly what to expect...nakedness, blood, balaclavas, wrestling masks, deformity...the whole shebang...yeah that's what the 'FEFU' video is all about and you get the dirty and clean versions on here but don't worry- the clean version ain't that clean! Plus there's the making of the video with Bob Sexton and a hilarious movie about a girl trying to lose weight so that she can get in the Dwarves video shoot and after relentless exercise resorts to blowing lunch in order to lose the weight. There's also a whole load of live Dwarves footage spanning from 1985 – 2006!!! Footage from the Thank Heaven tour, the Must Die tour, Blood Guts and Pussy tour, Young and Goodlooking tour etc as well as the 'I'm a Living Sickness' and interviews from 1992 and 2005...what a package!! Can there be a better mix of Dwarves depravity and evil blended with the Suicide Girls' fucked up beauty? I think not!! This unity was bound to happen!! The 'FEFU' video is just awesome but the early stuff is what makes this DVD extra special...this is like 20 years of Dwarves wrapped into one DVD and that can only be a good thing! There will NEVER be another Dwarves so engross yourself in this shit before you miss out on the immorality and debauchery...then you'll be sorry!!
