Review :

LZY is very much the showcase of their lead singer which is very good looking, as a strong stage presence and a very nice voice. This being said, the musicians backing her up are excellent and get to show their talents on many tracks. LZY's music is mostly on the soft to pop rock range. On a few tracks they get slightly heavier. For Prog lovers, the popier tracks by bands like Magenta or The Gathering could give you an idea of what to expect. This is nice stuff from a band that has had some success (logically !!) in their home country and abroad. Recommended.
