Genitorturers

Live In Sin

By Keith Carman

A collection of well executed live performances interspersed with sordid offstage antics, Live In Sin is an excellent look at the X-rated S&M show the Genitorturers have been flaunting for over a decade. Led by dominatrix-esque front-woman Gen, the industrial metal quintet rip through songs from their more recent albums such as Machine Love and Flesh Is The Law as "unsuspecting guests" are drawn onstage and subjected to flogging, sexual gratification and torture from the vivacious blonde. While the footage from Live In Sin is extraordinary for an independent band, the segmenting of songs between various live performances is frustrating. With a powerful stage show such as this, a greater service would be provided to viewers by offering a full, uninterrupted set so that the majesty and perverseness of the band could be fully appreciated. Still, ten songs are executed flawlessly and bonus material including a Japanese Sin City promo, "behind the scenes" of the band's Hustler Magazine photo shoot and typical backstage tomfoolery are fun and interesting. AC/DC - Plug Me In Quite possibly the most comprehensive visual package of AC/DC material in their 30-plus years, the double-disc Plug Me In set features both eras of the Aussie rock'n'rollers in all of their blues-influenced glory. Kicking off with the band's first period, we witness the growing pains of origi...

A Tribe Called Quest - Verses From the Abstract

A Tribe Called Quest's hip-hop legacy is virtually peerless and while all the group members played a crucial role in the group's chemistry, Q-Tip is easily the group's most recognisable member. While All's strong silent role as the DJ and mediator and Phife's b-boy swagger were crucial in ensuring t...
