

REVIEW SCALE

5 – The album is excellent, it could also be considered perfect or near perfect. There may be a few glitches or setbacks, but they are not detrimental.

4 – The album is very good. There aren't too many glitches or setbacks but the ones that are present keep the album from being excellent.

3 – The album is mediocre. While the album is alright, there isn't anything that makes it stand out above other albums. Some of it is good, and some of it needs work.

2 – The album is bad. Many things have gone wrong, and unless it happens to be within your personal favorite genre, chances are it's not even worth your time. The band has a lot to work on.

1 – The album is terrible. The album isn't worth your time, no exceptions.

Note: Be aware that in November 2004 the grading scale was revised to how it is shown above in order to maintain more consistencies between our reviewers. Many of the reviews in our Archive may include ½ marks and ¼ marks and please be aware that the ratings at that time were also more open to our reviewers' interpretations of the rating scale, as opposed to this now absolute grading scale which our reviewers are responsible to follow in their rating procedures.

Genitorturers - Live In Sin (DVD) - added - November 14th, 2007

Reviewer: Ruben Mosqueda

Live In Sin is a live DVD that is comprised of 10 live performances, which are essentially individual video clips. Each video clip captures the mayhem that is the Genitorturers live stage show. As it turns out, the band is surprisingly good live. Gen is a sexy, goth goddess who delivers one sinful performance. What she lacks vocally she makes up for in her enthusiasm for both the live show and the material. The Genitorturers are very much a live band, like Manson, Zombie, and Cooper, and their show is equally as entertaining, too. The only complaint here is that Live In Sin was much too short. I just didn't want it to end. On a side note, one thing that I just can't get over is seeing David Vincent in the goth garb. It's hard to believe that this is the guy I used to see playing death metal in Morbid Angel. One of the highlights from the bonus material is the lactating dominatrix. That was over the top!
