Flipper Announces DVD Release Party

Posted by Mitch Michaels on 02.11.2008

Krist Novaselic to play with band for free show...

Flipper and their labels recently announced a special DVD release party for Flipper - Live Target Video 1980-81. The free, all ages party will take place at Amoeba Music in San Francisco on Monday night, February 18th. Flipper will play a 15 to 20 minute set with ex-Nirvana bassist Krist Novaselic in celebration of the release. Those who attend will have the opportunity to purchase a copy of the DVD at a special sale price one day before its official release. Attendees can also meet the band and get DVD's signed.

The DVD captures Flipper's extreme and scorching performances from 1980 and 1981, while helping form a picture of the band that slowed down punk rock and made the kids suffer in the "louder faster" days of hardcore. An intense blend of noise, punk and drone music coupled with an in your face attitude and performance style made Flipper one of most "out there" bands of the early 80s scene.
