FLIPPER

Live Target Video 1980-81

Noise-Rock

Sun Rating: 3 out of 5

Gleefully undisciplined and unrepentantly annoying, slow-fi San Francisco sludge-grinders Flipper were either the greatest band in history -- or the worst. For the few in the former category, here's a treat: More than an hour of decently shot live footage featuring the band in all its shambolic glory -- which is to say, out of synch, out of tune and loving every second of it.
