

With the help of new bassist Krist Novoselic, San Francisco punk band Flipper are nearly done with their first album in fifteen years. 2008 looks to be a busy year for Flipper (who Kurt Cobain regularly cited as an influence), as the band will reissue their entire back catalog, release a DVD called Flipper Live: Target Video 1980-81 and get out on the road for tour dates in the spring.

- Daniel Kreps