Bad Religion

The Riot

By Sam Sutherland

October 18, 2006

After a half-hour of boring camcorder footage of Bad Religion looking as stoic on stage as always, this low-budget release gets awesome when 1,000 angry punks start smashing up the El Portal Theater in North Hollywood. When the show is cancelled mid-way due to over-crowding, the kids lose their minds, resulting in tons of broken windows, chairs and arms. Although the footage is completely amateur and poorly focused, watching a helicopter circle over a street littered with fire trucks hosing kids down, broken glass and angry punks is worth a rental.
