Meat Beat Manifesto

Travelogue Live 05

*MVD VisualBeat your meat to this!

There are many reasons to love Meat Beat Manifesto. Perhaps it's their status as pioneers of industrial electronica. Perhaps you enjoy their experimental bent. Me, I love them because they have such a great name, describing the Tory Party's ideology perfectly, the magnificent bastards (MBM, not the Tories...).

This here DVD comprises a full live show, recorded live at the Cabaret Metro theatre in Chicago back in 2005, interspersed with live footage from three other shows across three continents (impressive, huh?). It sees them in scintillating form and gives more than a few clues to the nature of their enduring appeal.

Stuck for an Xmas gift for the electro-deviant in your life? Afraid that the Aphex Twin mask and DIY genital mutilation kit just won't (ahem!) cut it? Here's your answer - let's face it, whose life isn't enriched by a little Meat Beat Manifesto?
