Genitorturer-in-chief Gen must know a good plastic surgeon – or at least a good Photoshop designer. In the fourteen-or-so years since their debut album, “120 Days Of Genitorture” hit the shelves, she seems to have become curiously free of wrinkles, at least if the pictures on the covers of her band’s new CD and DVD are any guide.

Rising from the Florida swamp via the same scene which produced a certain Marilyn Manson, the ‘Torturers act centres around the antics of their frontwoman. It’s all about sauce with this one – basically she’s the human incarnation of Pandora Peroxide (Mark 1, natch) but with a kinky side. Her band are little more than an efficient outfit; very average would be a fair description. Featuring Gen’s husband Dave Vincent (once of Morbid Angel and noted in this country for behaving like a racist arsepiece in interviews) and a bunch of other bozos, they sound like a third rate White Zombie clone. But this show isn’t so much about the music as selling tits and booty to sweaty metalheads with bad acne who can’t get it anywhere else.

As such, the DVD is obviously the more logical choice, should you after that ringing endorsement still be considering making a purchase. It features ten live tracks from various shows and a fair selection of smutty extras, including mud wrestling and film of a shoot they did for Hustler, featuring Gen penetrating a naughty lady (albeit behind a big star covering the actual rudenesses).

All I have to say about the CD, is that it should not be listened to by anyone in search of good, or even vaguely interesting, music. If I had to use one word, it would be “bollocks”. ‘Nuff said. Anyway, if you really do like your very soft porn served with lashings of metal, I guess you could do worse than buy the DVD. There’s an even chance you might be able to get off to it at least once. Just don’t go expecting anything more than that.
