TAD: 'Busted Circuits And Ringing Ears' DVD Due In February - Nov. 29, 2007

MVD has set a February 19, 2008 release date for the "Busted Circuits and Ringing Ears" DVD from Seattle "grunge" pioneers TAD. According to a press release, the disc contains archival footage spanning the band's entire career, from the club days to the arenas. The documentary also utilizes insightful interviews from some of Seattle's most respected musicians including Krist Novoselic \(NIRVANA\), Chad Channing \(NIRVANA\), Kim Thayil \(SOUNDGARDEN\), Mark Arm \(MUDHONEY\), Mark Feichtone \(ZEKE\), and many others.

The audience will be taken on a musical journey from the highest of the highs, to the bands all time lows. It's truly a frustrating story of the band's repeated bad luck juxtaposed with a close-up look at their influential musical approach. As Charles Cross (author/writer) states in the movie, this is a story of, "What could have been as opposed to what was."

Commented TAD bassist Kurt Danielson: "TAD took the idea of playing live very seriously; it was a life or death matter. This DVD not only stands as testimony to that claim, but it's also a cinematic document of the world's HEAVIEST band EVER (as Bruce Pavitt so incisively puts it) bodily stretching that assertion beyond any previously known limitations. Better than a tattoo, it's an open scar that roars, a broken alarm bell ringing from the lost event horizon of a long-dead star, one we could never see — that is, until this DVD clipped it back onto the light box of the silver screen, where it can be deciphered and viewed anew. This documentary telescopes the musical pathology of TAD down into the image of an electrocardiograph recording the minor-mode melody of a final infarct, a demented soundtrack that is neither tame nor de-clawed. It was never meant to be. Dare to feel it, and, like me, risk bleeding internally."

Previously, I've only known MVD for their inferior US import of Emperor's Emperial Live Ceremony DVD where there sound was in Monaural and you had to crank the volume all the way up just to barely here it. Since I'm a fan of TAD and plan on purchasing this DVD, you'd better do this one right, MVD!

TAD should reform and tour with Rise Above artists like Electric Wizard, or Cathedral, or Orange Goblin. Or, how about While Heaven Wept? Doom onward!

...Alice In Chains on their "Dirt" tour. Sweetwater and TAD opened that show. Layne was not yet a junkie (from what I could tell) at that point.

When i mention the band Tad to anyone at work the first thing that say Who? i say "you know that band from seattle, come on the one with the overweight singer? Who? thats unfortunate because Tad in my opinion crushed Pearl Jam and Soundgarden. Tad Doyle was a classically trained musician who was convinced that wearing flannel would be a good career path.

Tad had more catchy songs on one album than soundgarden had in their last 2. TAD rules!!!! bring back TAD

COMMENT | I forgot about this band.

8 way santa was one of the, if not THE best sub pop release by any of the seattle area bands. killer band.....great songs.....a lot like gruntruck in that they never really got the breaks they deserved while so many of their peers went on to be millionaires.

i'll definitely check out the dvd.

WIRED GOD!!!

 COMMENT | Lotta love for Tad here
