

Justin
Timberlake

Justin Timberlake is bringing his FutureSex/LoveShow World Tour to the St. Pete Times Forum on February 22. The tour includes Pink as his special guest. Justin, accompanied by a 14 piece band and back up dancers will perform in the round, bringing an intimate mood into the arena setting. "I've been rehearsing the band, getting the show ready and tight. What do we got? Ten dancers, 14 band members, a million tricks up my sleeve, a crazy light show - and I might even show up. Seriously, come out. I'll see you guys there." Timberlake said in a video statement.

The Red Hot Chili Peppers are touring in support of their new album, Stadium Arcadium. The band is most notable for their successfully fused various elements of alternative rock, heavy metal, punk, psychedelic rock, Costello drummer Pete Thomas, and it was almost entirely written spontaneously. Twisting and bending their sound with a rock producer was a natural next step for a group of guys who actually grew up on rock music. The band, who never uses the same set list twice, often covers songs like Ozzy Osbourne's "Crazy Train," and the Talking Heads "Girlfriend Is Better." Catch them on Feb. 10 at Jannus Landing in St. Petersburg.

New Edition's early Jackson 5-inspired material made them the forerunners of two generations of teen pop. As they matured and progressed, they laid much of the groundwork for the fusion of hip-hop and R&B known as

"New Jack Swing." They are coming to the Blue Line Theatre at the St. Pete Times Forum on Feb. 10.

Take your date to The Valentine's Blues Bash with Shirley Brown, Marvin Sease, Theodis Ealey, Latimore, Bobby Rush, Mel Waiters, Bobby Blue Band and Sir Charles Jones on Feb. 14th. The event is a music celebration that delivers the dynamics of high-energy entertainment with love, happiness and nostalgia, all in the name of the Blues.

Avant rock quartet The Nein will be at The Crowbar in Tampa for a show on Saturday, January 20. The Nein continue to explore song structure by harnessing disparate "parts" - samples, beats and found sounds interspersed with simple acoustic melodies and repetitive phrases - with great results. Welcome to the wild world of the Queers on their first DVD. It features footage of all the live energy and behind-the-scenes craziness of the Queers on tour around the world circa '93 to '05. Also included are interviews, music videos, and an unreleased animated video. See them in person at the Orpheum in Tampa on Jan. 28.

The Florida Orchestra and Music Director Stefan Sanderling will treat audiences to a dynamic mix of music over the next month: all five Beethoven piano concertos, Bruckner's monumental Symphony No. 8, and guest conductor Stanislaw Skrowaczewski in a program of works by Vivaldi and Beethoven, along with Skrowaczewski's own "Concerto for Orchestra." Plus, pianist extraordinaire Roger Williams is featured on the pops series, and the orchestra and three choirs will conjure up a magical experience with "The Lord of the Rings Symphony". Hailed by Frank Sinatra as "one of the major singers of our time," Grammy Award winner Jack Jones joins The Florida Orchestra to perform some of his best-loved hits, including "Wives and Lovers", "Impossible Dream", "Lollipop and Roses", and "Call Me Irresponsible."
