The Queers Are Coming: New Tour, DVD - December 22, 2006

The Queers are coming to your city! Get ready for an aural invasion from the legendary pop punk veterans.

In addition to a new DVD, The Queers will have a new album entitled "Munki Brain" out in February.

Set for release on February 20th from MVD Visual, The Queers' first DVD is titled "The Queers Are Here." It features footage of all the live energy and behind-the-scenes craziness of the Queers on tour around the world circa '93 to '05. Also included are interviews, music videos, and an unreleased animated video. You'll witness all the different lineups with Hubie, Bface, Wimpy, Danny Vapid and a cast of others. "It's been about 20 years since the first 7 was released, so we figured it was time for a DVD. Besides being able to play with so many great bands, it has been awesome to make friends all over the world from Japan to Brazil to Europe and beyond." -Joe Queer
