The Queers Are Here

The Queers will return to the music scene this year. The veteran rockers are commemorating their 25th anniversary with a number of releases. The group will kick things off with the new CD, "Munki Brain," in stores February 6th. Highlights include the tracks "I Think She's Starting To Like Me" and "Brian Wilson." The band's "The Queers Are Here" DVD will follow, as MVD Visual offers this comprehensive look at the exciting live shows, music videos, and interviews with the boys. Check it out February 20th. Later this year, Asian Man Records will re-release remixed and remastered versions of "Beat Off," "Move Back Home," "Grow Up," "A Day Late And A Dollar Short," "Don't Back Down," and "Pleasant Screams."
