

Live: Mission of Burma

Posted Nov 17th 2006 5:31PM by Mike Spinella

Filed under: Video, Still Awesome

Mission of Burma has been called "the best band you never heard." I couldn't agree more. Clearly a super-influential force in independent music that inspired everyone from Dag Nasty to Yo La Tengo.

Whether you are a fan or not, you will appreciate these videos, chronicling the rise, fall and reunion of these post-punk, noise-rock gods.

The Moving Parts: The Early Days

<http://www.spinner.com/2006/11/17/live-mission-of-burma/>

Keep reading for two more videos.

The Heyday

<http://www.spinner.com/2006/11/17/live-mission-of-burma/>

The Reunion with appearances by Thurston Moore, Moby and many more.

<http://www.spinner.com/2006/11/17/live-mission-of-burma/>

You can see this footage and more on their new DVD, 'Not a Photograph'

Add to Del.icio.us | Digg This | Submit to Netscape

-
- Permalink
- Email this
- Linking Blogs
- [Comments \[0\]](#)

Recent Posts

- Live: Mission of Burma \(11/17/2006\)
- Free Download: TV On the Radio \(11/17/2006\)
- Full DVD: Blackalicious '4/20 Live in Seattle' \(11/17/2006\)
- Why You Shouldn't Invite Sonic Youth Over for Tea \(11/17/2006\)
- Our Geek Sense Is Tingling \(11/17/2006\)