(MVD)

I thought for some reason this was going to be one of those goth doom bands, but how wrong I was. I have never heard of this band, but let me tell you, they place a vicious brand of speedy death metal that didn't disappoint me. They might have brought the cold, but they also brought plenty of speed and power. The camera work is top notch and the sound is incredible and this band sound tight as fuck. You get a full 12 song concert from this band and plenty of extra goodies such as: recording sessions and old demo stuff and an interview and this baby clocks in at 2 hours. A Dvd and band worth checking out. Info:
