Genre : Death Metal

Obituary is one of those bands that will probably play the same kind of music for another 30 years (if the bandmembers make sure they don't die in the meantime). One of the leaders of the Florida death metal scene (together with Morbid Angel, Deicide and Death), the band has mastered the art of the typical grooving old school death metal. The band broke up in 2000 but luckily reformed in 2004, with the record Frozen In Time as a result. During the tour they played in Warsaw (Poland), and a camera crew was ready to capture the action.*

One could compare this DVD with the band: You get what you expect and need, and that's about it! The disc exists of an excellent 20 song set (23 tracks minus the intros) of Obituary in great form, filmed with 7 cameras. The sound is clear and defined and the camerawork is well done. No MTV-like editing, but a very decent capture of the show, the way we like it! It is clear that the band are enjoying themselves, and the crowd is enthusiastic as well. We also get bonus footage (interviews, video clip, a making of and some backstage antics), you know the deal.

The only downside is that as an overall package, it could've been more comprehensive. Don't expect lengthy documentaries about the band's almost 20 year old career, or interviews "about the old days" (although the hiatus is one of the topics discussed). In the end it really is a snapshot of Obituary during their Frozen In Time tour; so the title is 100% correct: Frozen Alive. A must have for every death metal fan!
