

March 17, 2007

MUSIC ON DVD

If there's a band that begs to be listened to on DVD, it's German experimentalists Einstuerzende Neubauten. "Palast Der Republik" tracks the band in Berlin in 2004 and gives an essential upfront view of its freakish array of beaten steel, molded tubing, and draped ducting, which serve as instruments.

[Linda Laban]