Tim Buckley: My Fleeting House

when: Sun 5.13 (7pm)

where: Molly Malone's (575 S Fairfax Ave, 323.935.1577)

price: FREE

details: Event Info

An inimitable '60s hybrid, Tim Buckley's music combined jazz, funk, and psychedelia with a series of soaring, quivering vocal lines. Despite his off-kilter approach, Buckley's brand of rock-star magnetism, musical experimentalism, and political idealism found a home with dreamy teenagers and political protestors alike. In the spirit of his legendary live shows, Molly Malone's screens Tim Buckley: My Fleeting House tonight — the first-ever sanctioned collection of Buckley performances. The film features highlights from Buckley's tragically short career (he died at age 28 from an accidental overdose), rare concert footage, and interviews with writing partner Larry Beckett and Buckley biographer David Browne.
