Tim Buckley "My Fleeting House" Screenings

Fred Mills

April 12, 2007

As previously announced in our February 7 Tim Buckley news item, the late avant-folk bard has his first-ever official DVD due on May 15 from Music Video Distributors. In conjunction with its release, My Fleeting House will be taking a road trip to selected cities for exclusive screenings, including Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Austin and Portland, Ore.

The DVD features rare live performances—eleven full-length songs, three partials— from various television shows and interview footage spanning his entire career, from 1967 to 1974. There's an unreleased video, for example, of interaction with Buckley on The Steve Allen Show (1969) as well as on WITF's The Show (1970). The footage is taken from various television programs from 1967 to 1974 right up to the time of his death in 1975. All but two of the musical clips are unreleased.

The screenings are as follow:
