

Tim Buckley Doc

The DVD is being released on Tuesday, May 15, but if you're a big fan of musician Tim Buckley, you may want to check out this special, one-time screening of My Fleeting House. This performance documentary of rare Tim Buckley performances and interview footage that spans his entire career includes 11 full-length songs, and three partial performances. Buckley, who died of a heroin/alcohol overdose in 1975 at the age of 27, produced nine studio albums during his short career.

WHEN: Sun., May 13 at 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Molly Malone's: 575 S. Fairfax (at 6th St.)

COST: Free, but you must be at least 21 years old.

http://www.laist.com/archives/2007/05/08/weekly_movie_picks_silverlake_film_fest_bestiality_cockfighting_more.php