FREE(!) TIM BUCKLEY CONCERT PIC

The late, great singer/songwriter Tim Buckley -- father of the late, great singer/songwriter Jeff Buckley -- is the subject of My Fleeting House, a doc screening on Thursday, May 10, at the Tin Angel. It's got rare concert footage, including Buckley and band performing on 1960s TV shows (The Monkees, Steve Allen), plus interviews, plus great '60s-'70s hair and couture, plus -- most importantly -- the film offers a vivid reminder of how unique an artist, mixing folk, blues and jazz, that Buckley was. He died, at 28, of a drug overdose.

There are two screenings of the Rick Fuller-directed film, at 7:30 and 10 pm. It's free, but you have to RSVP. Call the Tin Angel at: 215.928.0978.
