The Jesus Lizard

LIVE- (MVD)- While I must admit that I was always partial to Scratch A Yow's band prior to Jesus Lizard) that is not to say that I didn't dig the dig their stuff and I remember seeing them at least once probably some (most likely The Khyber). I did like seeing J.L. live 'cos first off you had Sims staring you down from the stage (just like he used to do in Scratch Yow just being a complete freak. The gig on this dvd was from October club in Boston, Venus de Milo (well, the press release says Boston but Yow says "Hello Cambridge"ok, story time: one time in the late 80's I was hanging c friends in Somerville, MA and I made the genius comment of "It's great to be here in Bc friend of a friend, not a very friendly one, looks at me with a dead stare and says , in the "You're not in Boston, you're in Somerville!"). Anywho, on this dvd the camera shots ar sound and at one point Yow gets the ok from a crowd and dives right in. The band tack "Mouthbreather", "Horse", "Mailman" and plenty of others. Plus as a bonus there is 5 ac recorded in NYC at CBGB's in the Summer of 1992 (including "My Own Urine", "Monke "Wheelchair Epidemic", etc.). www.mvdvisual.com

Lene Lovich

LIVE FROM NEW YORK AT STUDIO 54- (MVD)- While I own a handf records I must say that I hardly ever listen to them (though I was happy when I got the "New Toy" 12" back in the early 80's). This show, from [1981 , captures Lovich and her band (which includes, yep, that is him, synth) in the Big Apple.....btu strangely enough, it wasn't from the Mu Danceteria or even CBGB's but from the legendary hedonistic disco th (where was Warhol? Bianca? Cher?). This is classic in new wave exce band and the fans. I remember the early 80's very well and yes, I too was a new wave l out dressed to the nines (as my pal Tony used to say) looking like part UK hipster (tho actually born in the USA, in Detroit) and part mental patient (with that hair !) and out c hiccup of a voice. With Dolby looking every bit the scientist that he is (or was) and the c members looking oh so new wave they tackle "Details", "Lucky Number", "Rocky Road" "New Toy." I won't say that this dvd enticed me into tossing a Lene record on the turnta did enjoy watching every minute of it. www.mvdvisual.com

The Queers

ARE HERE- (MVD)- Hard to believe that The Queers have been arou to commemorate it Joe and Co. have released this dvd. If you have ne Hampshire institution take two parts Ramones and add some Screechi T Experience and yes, you have what we call, pop punk. All the hits ar the Rent", "Fagtown", "Tamara is a Punk", "Brush Your Teeth", " I Only of course, the smash single, "Drop the Attitude Fucker." It has live clips 2005 as well as videos and some unreleased animated video . I only have one problem dvd player and the odd thing is that this is the 2nd copy they have sent me. The first one and skipped all the way through. The only thing I can do is bring it over a friend's house over there. I really do want to see it. www.mvdvisual.com
