'WAKING UP DEAD' MOVIE FEATURING EX-SKID ROW DRUMMER: DVD DUE IN JUNE

Written by MetalHead

Friday, 11 May 2007

'Waking Up Dead', a film about the seedy underworld of '80s metal as seen through the eyes of SKID ROW and SAIGON KICK member Phil Varone, will receive its long-awaited DVD release on June 26 via MVD Visual. The unflinching documentary was directed by Emmy Award-winning journalist Fabio Jafet and was filmed over a four-year period. Bands contributing to the soundtrack include TEMPLE OF BRUTALITY (featuring former MEGADETH bassist David Ellefson and ex-W.A.S.P. drummer Stet Howland), MATT KRAMER (ex-SAIGON KICK), BEFORE BRaille, FIVESPEED, RANDY COLEMAN, MINDFLOWER, CREASE and F5 (featuring former MEGADETH bassist David Ellefson).

Varone previously said about the movie, 'I traded everything ... my family, friends and finances ... all for my addictions and the world of sex, drugs and rock and roll. 'Waking Up Dead' is a great lesson on life for anyone who watches it.'

A preview of 'Waking Up Dead' may be seen on the film's web site, WakingUpDeadMovie.com.
