

MICHAEL FRANTI AND SPEARHEAD: LIVE IN SYDNEY (Music Video Distributors)

Three of my favorite things: Michael Franti, live music, and Australia, all in one neat CD/DVD package. Franti and his manic band are a highly underrated musical force, but the live setting is where they're at their best. Whether you watch it or just listen, it's all your favorite Spearhead tunes, impressive jam sessions, and enough soulful funk to keep your ass in a constant state of shake.
