

ning from some ruthless thugs. Desperate to repay the boss' money nothing goes as planned as Jimmy is drawn ever deeper into a dangerous criminal underworld.

BIG BAD MAMA - Special Edition

List Price: $19.99; Walt Disney Video
Angie Dickinson stars as a bank-robbing matriarch in this 1974 Roger Corman production. Set in Great Depression-era Texas, the story finds Dickinson's character driven to crime, along with her two daughters (Susan Sennett, Robbie Lee), all of whom use sex to distract or drive men into culpability. The film, is pure Corman formula: fast-moving, violent, gritty, adorned with nudity, and yet solidly true to its own sense of high drama and texture.

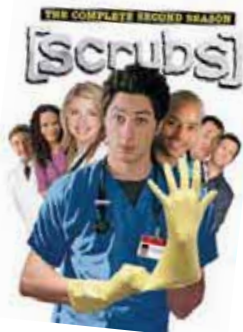

TV SHOWS

FIVE MILE CREEK - The Complete First Season

List Price: $39.99; Walt Disney Video.
Starring: Louise Caire Clark, Rod Mullinar.
Journey back to the booming Australian gold rush of the 1860s, a wild Outback frontier, and the spirited pioneers who aim to tame it. Five Mile Creek chronicles a story of outlaw bushrangers, ruthless government troops, and the challenges of making an emerging stagecoach line a rip-roaring success.

SCRUBS - The Complete Second Season

Starring: Zach Braff, Sarah Chalke.
List Price: $39.99; Touchstone/Disney.
Nominated for two Emmy Awards in its second year, the hilarious sitcom is irreverent and wildly inventive. The wacky staff of Sacred Heart Hospital is back and they've brought along some guest stars (Heather Locklear, Tom Cavanagh, and John Ritter) for a booster shot of laughs in 22 episodes.

TALES FROM AVONLEA - The Complete First Season

List Price: $34.99; Walt Disney Video
Set in turn-of-the-century Canada, this Emmy-winning children's classic is drawn from four novels by Lucy Maud Montgomery. When her widowed father is accused of embezzlement, wealthy, wide-eyed Sara (Sarah Polley) is sent to live with working class relatives on Prince Edward Island. Thus marks the start of seven years in tight-knit Avonlea. Avonlea ran for six more seasons and became Canada's longest-running, highest-rated TV series.
