THE COUP
THE BEST DVD EVER
MVD
8 out of 10
Band Website

I hadn't heard much of Coup before this DVD happened into my lap, but what I heard I've loved, which is why I was super excited to check this DVD out. Most Bands that put out DVDs nowadays are mostly "look at our endless live shows and the stupid shit we do off stage, we have no meaning, we have no message." So is NOT the case with Coup!

Aside from being one of the most talented rappers around these days Coup is also one of the most political, singing about struggles, and poverty and famine, not about playing with his "laffy taffy" (God I hate that fucking song). He takes it back to what rap and hip hop were meant to be. There are some music videos on this DVD including "Me & Jesus The Pimp in a '79 Grenada Last Night", however the majority of the DVD is a documentary called "Eating Forever" about Coups trip to Africa w/ Talib Kwali, Dead Prez and many more. Visiting squatters and famine struck families, workers struggling to get by, asking what people think about what has happened to their homes etc. You don't just get a one sided view, you get inside insight from the people who this everyday.

To make a long story short, not only is this DVD a great look at one of the great rappers just under the radar, but with any luck it will serve as a wake up call to people about the problems that plague the rest of the world. Definitely worth checking out.
