Blackalicious are one of hip-hop's most prolific and well-respected acts. The acts they have worked with and appeared on stage with reads like a veritable who's who of contemporary rap. Now they have teamed up with some of their pals to release their first ever live DVD, 4/20 Live In Seattle, released courtesy of Wienerworld on 22 January 2007.

Recorded live this year in front of a sell out crowd of 1,200 fans packed into the Showbox Theater, Seattle, the DVD features Blackalicious' two rappers, Gift Of The Gab and Chief Xcel alongside an incomparable supporting cast.

The duo perform alongside hip-hop luminaries and contemporaries such as Lateef, Pigeon John, LifeSavas and Fat Lip of the Pharcyde and is an energy-filled, adrenalin-fuelled romp taking in tracks from throughout Blackalicious' 15-year career. It also contains some great behind the scenes footage and interviews with the band and crew-members.

Blackalicious rose to prominence in the early 1990s as part of the Solesides crew, a West Coast-based hip-hop outfit who eschewed the guns and scantily clad females so beloved of most Californian rappers. They have collaborated extensively with such feted artists as DJ Shadow and fellow hip-hop turntablist, Cut Chemist and have travelled the world and shared stages with the likes of Jay-Z, 50 Cent, Mary J. Blige, The Roots and Public Enemy.
