NINETAIL: Half Truths & Hand Grenades

Level Nine Entertainment/MVD

Rating: 10 Out Of 10

Sounding eerily like the early 90's D.C. Electro-Metal-Core band SPINE combined with early SLIPKNOT, this group of York, Pennsylvania bad asses keep the formula very simple; Smash the fuck out of any and everything within reach!!! They're brutal, I tell you, and there are no prisoners taken from the very beginning of the album. There is really no downtime at all. The listener is simply beaten to a lifeless pulp throughout by a group of very talented players and a well-versed sample mixer/DJ. This is the kind of shit that is mean enough to start a revolution. You've got equal parts SEPULTURA, MINISTRY, FEAR FACTORY and the aforementioned SLIPKNOT to contend with here, but brewed into a wicked web of originality that they managed to pull out of such a cast of influences. I'm very impressed as I love when a band mixes SFX and samples into belligerent Metal such as this. One can only hope that the world will open their ears to tracks like "Seasoned Scheme", "My Belief" (one of my favorite tracks on the album), "God Willing", "Bull Ring", "Trials Of A Madman" and "Superpsycho". Truthfully, this is a no-bullshit, head-smashing Metal album that will make you want to chew glass and fuck shit up! A very impressive effort from a group of young Metalheads that I know we'll be hearing more from in the future.

Haul ass over to (Amazon.com) and pick up this little Metal Masterpiece Now! A great anger release tool!!! Very, Very, Highly Recommended!!!
