

WIRED

Adventures in Modern Music

The Magazine Subscribe Shop News Web Exclusive Archive Links Blog Contact

News

- . News
 - . Special Events
 - . UK Festivals
 - . International Festivals
 - . On Stage
 - . Club Spaces
-

The Conduit

Why sign up?

Add Remove

Kaiser music on Herzog Encounters film

- . News
- . Featuring: Henry Kaiser
- . Links: Encounters website

Werner Herzog's new feature film, Encounters At The End Of The World, will feature the music of Cuneiform associate Henry Kaiser

Werner Herzog's new feature film, Encounters At The End Of The World (opening in the US this month), will feature the music of Cuneiform associate Henry Kaiser in collaboration with his friend David Lindley. Kaiser also produced the movie and did all of the underwater photography; as well as appearing as a character on camera. This being their fourth collaboration, Kaiser and Herzog decided to uncover some of the polar mysteries of Antarctica, one of Earth's least explored territories.

Who has had a subscription to The Wire for over 15 years, Matt Groening or Thurston Moore? Answer here.

© The Wire Magazine 2008 | Privacy Policy | Advertisers | Contact | Newsfeeds | About Us | Directory | Back to top