

U2, The DVD Collector's Box (2 DVD)

This box set of 2 DVDs gathers DVDs released in 2003 and 2004 about U2 (An Unforgettable Journey) and about its singer, Bono (God's Favorite Son). Those are unauthorized biographies on which you will not hear any music by U2. On the other hand, the 2 documentaries present in a detailed way the formation of the group in Dublin, Ireland whereas the 4 friends were still in high school. It overviews the career of the most important band of the last 20 years by interviews with journalists as well as close relations of the band members. The already detailed information of the DVD about U2 is magnificently supplemented by the DVD about Bono whereas they still add more information about the beginnings of the group. On the DVD devoted to Bono, they talk with more details about the implication of the singer in the community, as well as his many meetings one on one with international leaders. On these 2 DVDs, there are 2 hours of material which enable us to still discover a little more about the group that we already know very well.
