

NEW RELEASES MUSIC DVDS

ROLLING STONES - Under Review: 1967-1969
List Price: $19.95; MVD Visual; www.MVDb2b.com

This is a 90 minute documentary film reviewing the music and career of the band during, arguably, their most creative period. The DVD includes rare musical performances, and obscure footage, rare interviews and private photographs of and with the band. In addition, live and studio recordings of Stones classics have been added, as well as footage of and comment on many of their pivotal influences during this period.

THE PINK FLOYD AND SYD BARRETT STORY
List Price: $24.95; Zeit Media; www.MVDb2b.com

This documentary tells the full bizarre, tragic and celebratory story of Syd Barrett with contribution from friends, managers, and band members - Roger Waters, Dave Gilmour, Nick Mason and Rick Wright. The film includes rare early television appearances of Pink Floyd and home movies too. In this new definitive edition DVD, the full unedited interviews conducted by the director with Pink Floyd are now made available raw and unedited, alongside the original documentary. The three hours of DVD extras also include acoustic performances of Syd's songs by Robyn Hitchcock and ex-Blur member Graham Coxon.

TANGERINE DREAM - 35th Anniversary At Shepherds Bush
List Price: $19.95; Zeit Media; www.MVDb2b.com

This show, filmed on June 11, 2005 celebrated the recording of the landmark album "Phaedra". The band, consisting of Thorsten Quaeschning, Linda Spa, Jerome Froese and Iris Camaa, played a multitude of songs from their lengthy career including Phaedra 2005, Rubycon Pt. 1, Force Majeure, Logos and a cover of the Jimi Hendrix classic Purple Haze.

Tangerine Dream's impressive live reputation dates back to the early 70's... Their multi-media concerts were completely improvised.

RICK WAKEMAN - The Other Side Of Rick Wakeman
List Price: $19.95; Classic Studio T; www.MVDb2b.com

This DVD features Rick Wakeman in an up-close and uproarious stand-up performance filmed live in front of a studio audience. The 'Grumpy' rock legend, composer and raconteur exposes a host of hilarious anecdotes and unknown escapades experienced during his career, including the first rehearsals with Yes, his multi-marital life, amusing recording session memories, his exposure in a Japanese toilet, and more. Wakeman also explains his version of the X-factor and brings to life the lost chord in the Yes classic And You and I. This brand new show also features classic material from The Strawbs, Yes and his hit solo albums performed on the Grand Piano.

DARK FUNERAL - Attera Orbis Terrarum Part 1
List Price: $19.99; Regain Records; www.regainrecords.com

This first ever DVD from the band features three full shows professionally filmed and recorded. It also includes a lot of amateur/fan footage shot at various shows around Europe. Band leader Lord Ahriman said they wanted this DVD to serve as a historical, live documentation of their career with rare and previously unreleased footage. This is the first in a series of two. The second will focus on South America.

CARMINE & VINNY APPICE - DRUM WARS: The Ultimate Battle

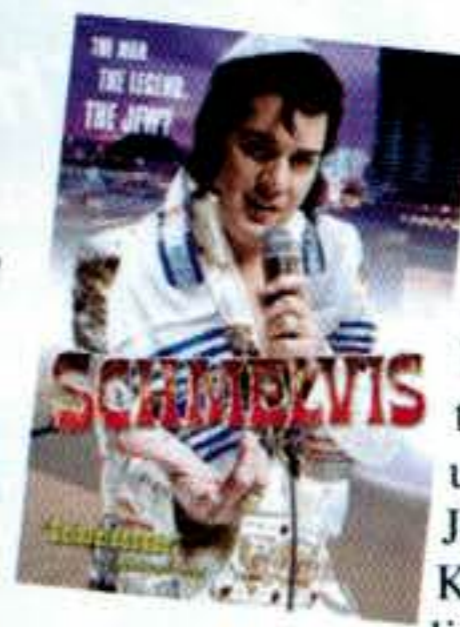

Vinny and Carmine break out the heavy artillery in this entertaining no-holds barred battle of the brothers. ABC's Francesca Cappucci serves as host and commentator. Both drummers play great solos and ensemble work in their own inimitable style. Packed with hilarious spoofs in full WWF style and performances fueled by the energy only warfare can create. Drum Wars is a battle to the end. Who will win?

List Price: $19.95; Power Rock; www.MVDb2b.com

SCHMELVIS
List Price: $19.95; Video Service Company; www.MVDb2b.com

What happens when you throw together a born-again orthodox Jewish Elvis impersonator, an eccentric Rabbi and a film crew in a Winnebago? The resulting offbeat documentary is an often hilarious comment on pop culture, tolerance and identity. Schmelvis follows a bizarre odyssey to trace Elvis' roots, following up on a 1998 Wall Street Journal article exposing the King's improbable Jewish lineage.
