Syd Barrett Doc to Get Deluxe Reissue

On September 18th, The Pink Floyd and Syd Barrett Story will get the deluxe treatment through MVD Entertainment Group. The two-disc set ups the original running time from 49 minutes to a whopping 203 minutes. That's more than a three hour Syd trip for all you stoner mathematicians.

From the MVD website:

John Edginton's documentary tells the full bizarre, tragic and celebratory story of Syd Barrett with contribution from friends, managers, and band members - Roger Waters, Dave Gilmour, Nick Mason and Rick Wright. The film includes rare early television appearances of Pink Floyd and home movies too. In this new definitive edition DVD, the full unedited interviews conducted by the director with Pink Floyd are now made available raw and unedited, alongside the original documentary. The three hours of DVD extras also include acoustic performances of Syd's songs by Robyn Hitchcock and ex-Blur member Graham Coxon.

Here's an excerpt from the original release:

Syd Barrett's Final Pink Floyd Video to Air on BBC

Uncut breaks news of a rare Pink Floyd promo video airing on BBC's The Seven Ages Of Rock in May. Great news for stoners all over the UK, but what really caught our eye was how high the author must have been:

Bat for Lashes
Horse And I

Bat For Lashes' Natasha Khan has friends in high places. Back in January, Thom Yorke opened his iTunes celebrity playlist with this track and noted that it, "seems to come from the world of Grimm's fairytales, and i feel like a wolf." Fur and Gold is out July 31st. [\[DOWNLOAD\]](#)

"Jughead Blues" was the final video that Syd Barrett was included in before he was replaced by Roger Waters.

First of all the song is "Jugband Blues." Jughead is a character from the Archie comics. Second of all David Gilmour replaced Barrett. Come on Uncut! Put down the bong. Hasn't Pink Floyd and/or Syd Barrett graced your cover like 900 times? Anyway, it's a good excuse to post the video that they may be referring to:

The Rosebuds
Night Of The Furies

Armed with slowly strummed guitars, lots of vintage synthesizer effects and a drum machine, The Rosebuds have very successfully created a record that sounds both like homage and startlingly fresh. The melodies are simple and catchy and the songs are surpr... - jimtarnation [\[READ REVIEW\]](#)
