

Lovedolls Superstar: Fully Realized

(DVD, Music Video Distributors)

The follow-up to Desperate Teenage Lovedolls. With Bunny Tremelo now deceased, Kitty Karryall (Jennifer Schwartz) and Patch Kelley (Janet Housden) have nothing to do but revive their once successful rock band. After securing replacement guitarist Alexandria (a bleached blond hooker), it doesn't take long for the band to regain their diehard fans...who are so devoted that they quickly begin killing for their idols. Steve McDonald (Rainbow Tramaine) is hilarious as a hippy commune member who goes to the big city...while Jeff McDonald (Carl Celery) plays the fanatical fan who shows up at a riotously funny Brews Springstien show. (Brews sings "Shoot Me In The Dark"...and Carl is happy to oblige.) We don't want to give away any more of the plot here. Suffice to say, Lovedolls Superstar is very much in the vein of John Waters. This is a low budget film with plenty of goofy surprises and intriguing guest appearances. The title song by Redd Kross is absolutely killer, as is the rest of the soundtrack. While this may only be of interest to those who followed underground rock in the mid to late 1980s...this movie is quite simply a hell of a good spin with lots of laughs throughout. (Rating: 5)
