What's On, August 9

Sisters Rebecca and Megan Lovell, better known as American folk duo Larkin Poe, will be among more than 500 acts performing at this year's Broadstairs Folk Week. What's On chats to the girls and previews this year's line-up in a two page festival special.

If you didn't get tickets to the London V&A Museum exhibition David Bowie Is Happening Now, a final chance to see it is on offer in the county this week. Find out more in this week's What's On.

By day, Matthew Huntley works as a zookeeper, but in his spare time he has an unusual alter ego - wrestler Van Wicked. He is indulging his passion by organising a wrestling spectacular in Kent this weekend - and What's On has all the details.

She was a child star as Tracy Beaker, the 'pocket rocket' on Strictly Come Dancing, and now Dani Harmer is taking on another challenge, performing in the 40th anniversary production of the Rocky Horror Show. What's On chats to her ahead of the cult classic's return to the county this week.

We also have some top prizes up for grabs, including family tickets to see Horrible Histories: Barmy Britain - Part Two in the West End; 10 pairs of tickets to see boyband JLS; VIP tickets to Folkestone Ska Splash Festival; tickets to see Ready Steady Cook; and an iPad Mini.

And one young sport enthusiast can also be a member of the Kent Spitfires team for a day at Canterbury's St Lawrence Ground.
