

DENATA/Act Of The Insane (Arctic Music Group) I think I have reviewed this before, but nevertheless this is a wicked slab of death metal that really is worth seeking out. Bone crushing riffs that mix in some thrash that will make your head and neck move. The vocals are a pure death metal delight and I love them. The production is nice and thick and this is one death metal release I think everybody in the underground should own. Info:

www.mvdb2b.com

- Chris Forbes