CHRONICLES OF JUNIOR M.A.F.I.A.

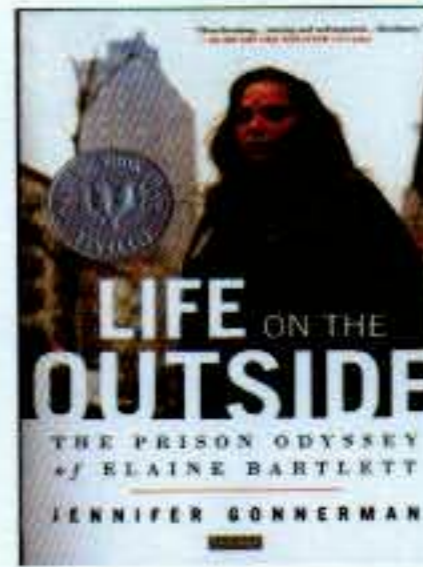

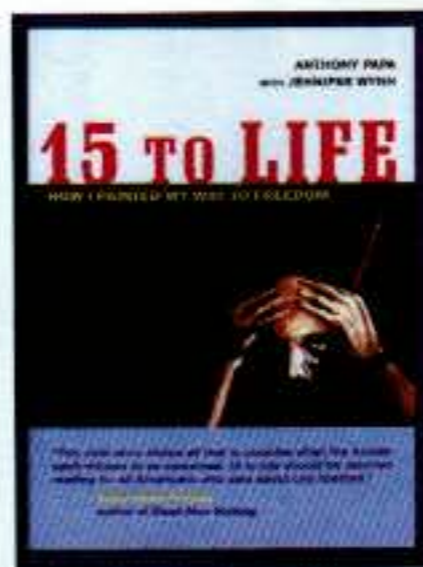

Music Video Distributors and Ground Zero release Chronicles of Junior M.A.F.I.A. on DVD.

Reminiscent of Tupac Resurrected, and with executive producers, Lil' Cease and Ms. Violetta Wallace, Chronicles of Junior M.A.F.I.A. will touch hearts and spark debates over what really happened the night of March 9, 1997 when The Notorious B.I.G. was shot and killed from multiple gunshot wounds.

What was going on at that last hour? How did it happen? Why is the L.A.P.D. a defendant in America's largest wrongful death lawsuit? Who is the Junior M.A.F.I.A.? And why were they so important to Biggie Smalls A.K.A. Notorious B.I.G.?

With special commentary from Ms. Violetta Wallace, Jay-Z, Ma$e, Jadakiss and personal video and photographs from Lil' Cease, Ms. Wallace and other M.A.F.I.A. members, we will get to see an insider's story not available before.

GRAFFITI ROCK & OTHER HIP HOP DELIGHTS

Music Video Distributors and MTH Productions release Graffiti Rock and Other Hip Hop Delights on DVD.

In the early 1980s, many people were unaware that a new movement called Hip Hop was beginning to take form. Michael Holman was there to get the "word up" and out, and captured the early stages of a movement that is now a worldwide phenomenon.

Through his televised shows "Graffiti Rock" and "TV New York" Michael Holman brought a whole new culture to the living rooms of those searching to identify with the sounds of the street. Graffiti Rock covers the humble beginnings of many now well-known artists and musicians such as Run DMC, Kool Moe Dee, and the break dancing/b-boying crew The New York City Breakers.

On this DVD, you will see how true underground artists got together and developed a scene that after over 20 years has proven to withstand not only the test of time, but also the name given originally as an insult - Hip Hop!
