East, Meet West: Studio Happy Chicken Pink Brings Japanese Hotness To The States

Japanophiles, rejoice: Studio Happy Chicken Pink is bringing gravure/pink films to the American market. What are gravure/pink films, you ask? Pretty much just hot Japanese girls dancing around in sexy, teasing ways (and various states of undress). Awesome, right?

The studio's first two releases—"Sundae Girl" and "Ayaka is Your Angel"—will be available May 18, with "Thai Relax" hitting the streets on June 29. Yes, we know it's a long time to wait...but take a peek at the trailer for "Sundae Girl" (above), and browse the SHCP website, and we think you'll agree that the wait is worth it.
