Hear The Fall Live At The Knitting Factory

Tuesday August 21, 2007 @ 06:00 PM

By: ChartAttack.com Staff

The Fall have probably gone through more lineup changes (58 at last count, according to Wikipedia) than any band of the past 30 years, and you can check out one version of the group on Live At The Knitting Factory.

The album was recorded at the Los Angeles club on Nov. 14, 2001. The songs were previously available on the Access All Areas DVD, but MVD Audio will release the LP on Sept. 18.

The Fall's Mark E. Smith

Iconoclastic singer/songwriter Mark E. Smith has been the only constant since The Fall formed in a Manchester, England suburb in 1976. The post-punk band's popularity has waxed and waned at various points over the course of releasing 26 studio albums and several compilations and live records, but their unique sound has influenced bands such as Sonic Youth, Pavement, Elastica, Franz Ferdinand and The Smiths.

Here are the songs on Live At The Knitting Factory:

- "The Joke"
- "Cyber Insekt"
- "And Therein"
- "Bourgeois Town"
- "Cropdust"
- "Kick The Can/Folding Money/Kick The Can Part Two"
- "Mr. Pharmacist"
- "Jim's the Fall"
- "Antidotes"
- "Way Round/Dr. Buck's Letter"
- "Way Round"
