Giveaway – The Hudson Brothers Razzle Dazzle Show DVD – 2 Winners – Ends 8/16/10

August 1, 2010

The Hudson Brothers Razzle Dazzle Show: Complete

Series

MVD Entertainment
Street date 9/30/08
355 minutes – 3 discs

Description: Do you love those great 70's sketch shows? Remember the hilarious Chucky Margolis? Yeah, those were the days...but wait, just when you thought every possible TV show was out on DVD, VSC reaches back in time to bring you the landmark release of The Hudson Brothers Razzle Dazzle Show. That's right, for the first time on any format comes sixteen seriously zany half hours of Saturday morning family programming from an era when zany used to count for something. It's the Hudson Brothers – Brett, Mark and Bill, along with (Brett's signature character) Chucky Margolis, shticking and singing their way through sixteen half hours that entertained kids of all ages. Once called "The Kings of Saturday Morning" by John Lennon himself, The Hudsons are joined by series "irregulars" Ted Ziegler, Billy Van and Murray

Langston, the latter destined to become The Unknown Comic. With Rod Hull and his Emu rounding out the zoo, the Hudson Brothers will take you back to the golden age of TV variety shows! Includes the Hudsons singing ...So You Are a Star (Top Ten Hit) and much more!

When I first received this dvd, The Hudson Brothers didn't really look familiar to me.

But then... I pushed play and the memories all came back to me – the corny jokes, the silly catch phrases that all the neighborhood kids were repeating, the music, the ridiculous matching outfits worn by the brothers and the embarrassment when I realized that I used to think those outfits were really really cool. 😊

This is a fun step back in time to the 70's when it kids and entire families enjoyed watching variety shows. It's authentically corny and very family friendly.
