LEATHERFACE • Boat In The Smoke • (2005 MVD)

LEATHERFACE
Boat in the Smoke
(MVD)

If you're not into punk music, you may not have heard of Leatherface the band. Even if you are, you still may not have heard of them, but you should have by now. Leatherface have been around long enough to be one of the main influences on more popular bands like Dillinger Escape Plan or Avail, yet have remained just out of the limelight, having to open up for the bands that look up to them on previous tours. It is nice to see the A Punk Version has released this DVD, BOAT IN THE SMOKE, to let people know what they are missing.

The DVD contains a complete live show, a partial live show, and a very cool interview with front man and founder Frankie Stubbs. This band plays damn good punk, and reminded me of Down By Law, on style and stage presence. I would go as far as saying that Leatherface is a thinking man's punk band. I know I'll be adding some CDs in my collection soon and was happy to review this band's DVD. It's a good watch, and I'd say pick it up if you're a fan or not.
