Review: Why? Why do most Australian bands try to sound like AC/DC? Is this the 'Australian Sound', like we talk about the 'Bay Area'? I am not impressed by this record. I took a look at the band's webpages and I was quite surprised. The band is touring all over the world all of the time, playing in small pubs or something. That gets my respect. It might be easier to get some money, because this is a two-member band. If you like Doro's vocals, you might like BugGirl. Yep, I can put it this way: AC/DC meets Doro.

Conclusion: Rock fans might like this. For fans only.

Rating: 65/100
