BUGGIRL

BUGGIRL

"Dirt in the Skirt"

By Dark Starr

If you like hard rock that teeters between metal and punk, this one's probably a great fit. With the female vocals comparisons to Joan Jett are often appropriate, but there's a lot more than that going on here. While the musical style might seem limiting, this never gets redundant or boring. Best of all, the energy level stays high and the album seems to fly by like a cranked up muscle car on a desert highway.

Comparisons to the classic band Girlschool are not unwarranted but Buggirl slip in their own flavor to the mix. Is it punk rock? Is it heavy metal? Is it just plain raw rock n' roll? It's fun trying to find out, as it all rocks pretty hard. All in all, it's an album that starts off strong and doesn't waver.
