Immolate – Ruminare

By

Immolate is a twisted blend of doom rock, hardcore and punk. Really, best broad description I can come up with. There's definitely a punk wave to the big guitar melodies and the on-purpose raw production lends itself to punk comparisons. Not to mention the fact that the vocals – not nearly what you'd expect from a band called Immolate whose cover features blackness and a skeletal body being consumed by flames and whose album boasts songs titled "Heathen" and "Kill Your Idols" and "Seven Heads". Hell, I'd expect something like black metal, or at least death metal. But somehow that would just be too predictable. I like the shouty punked out vocals on here. I like the gritty hardcore punchiness. And I groove totally on the big riffs. This is a fusion that benefits and transcends; thanks to its mergings, I think it surpasses what it would have been with a more tunnel-visioned genre focus.
